Experience is our strength.

The I.A.P.A. has systematically built on the lessons of the past to make the present and future safer.

But all the experience in the world won't help if you don't share it. And that is what we, at the I.A.P.A., want to do. We want to place the accumulated experience of almost seven decades in your hands.

We need your help in achieving our common goal. Do your part by taking advantage of our services. We can supply you with detailed safety information, audio visuals, even seminars covering just about every line of work there is. Experience is our strength...

Make it yours.
